Donohoe has cited the cases of four commissioners of the revenue to the clerks of the Circuit Courts of their counties for such punishment as these courts may see fit to mete. In addition, the Auditor exepcts to declare forfeited their commissions on the year's work for the State, and will probably impose the fine provided by law.

The law prescribes a fine of not less than $50 nor more than $200 for any delay beyond June 15 in sending in these books, and in addition the commissions of the officers must be forfeited. The Auditor is allowed to give thirty days of grace for good reasons, which Captain Donohoe granted in some cases.

This year's situation presents nothing new, as trouble has always been experienced from this source. It has been the aim of Auditor Donohoe to get away from the ancient ways of doing business.

WANTS LAW ENFORCED AGAINST JOY-RIDING AUTOMOBILISTS

[Special to The Times-Dispatch]
Harrisonburg, Va., September 29.—
Judge Haas, in the Circuit Court of Rockingham county, threatens to call a special grand jury in session to prosecute the town and county officers if they do not enforce the law against the reckless joy-riding automobilists.
Harrisonburg is on the far-famed Valley Pike, now a choice part of the national highway, and tourists find the beautiful stretch of pike at this point a tempting place for joy-riding and speeding. Local motorists, too.
